Join us for an unforgettable exploration of the culture and countryside of Italy. Experience some of Italy's most special treasures with a small group of kindred spirits. Enrich your experiences by using sketch, watercolor, writing, and photography to hone your attention and heighten your enjoyment.

We start with three nights in Venice, where the light reflects off the water, and bathes the byzantine architecture in a warm glow. We'll walk the narrow streets and visit the piazzas that have drawn travelers for a thousand years. We'll sketch the Grand Canal, the Ghetto, and the outer islands. We'll see the local art, and enjoy a food tour of the bacari of Canareggio.

We'll visit the Doge's Palace and the Duomo, and have an island tour including Murano. You'll have a Vaporetto ticket for all three days, so, it's easy to do some exploring on your own, if you are feeling adventurous.

We'll have breakfasts at our hotel, lunches out and about (sometimes at a local trattoria, sometimes as a picnic) and dinners at select restaurants. On Sunday night you'll be on your own for dinner before an evening walking tour.

On Tuesday morning, we'll take a high-speed train to Santa Maria Novella station in Florence. Our hotel is just a couple of blocks from the station. We'll spend the afternoon visiting the various neighborhoods of Florence, and experiencing the art and architecture in the birthplace of the Renaissance. We'll have time to sketch along the Arno, to sip wine at a favorite enoteca, and to learn why Florence is considered by so many, the world's most beautiful city.

We'll have a food lover's tour of the local Mercato Centrale, where vendors offer fresh vegetables, cured Tuscan meats and delicious cheeses. We'll shop for our specialty food tastings at Spannocchia, in this bustling marketplace.

On Thursday morning, a private coach will come to our hotel for the trip to Spannocchia. It's just a couple of hours to Spannocchia in the hills outside of Siena, so, along the way, we'll stop for a picnic lunch and sketch opportunities at a Chianti Hill Town.

Once we arrive at Spannocchia, we begin the retreat section of our tour. Most days we'll follow a regular schedule that includes morning walks, yoga, writing, sketch and water color, a Taste of Tuscany specialty food and wine pairings, and early evening photo sessions. Each evening we'll have a wine reception before dinner, family style dinner, We'll finish each evening with cards and camaraderie in the living room.

During our week at Spannocchia, we'll have two day trips. We'll spend a day in the city of Siena, enjoying the unique architecture and lifestyle. We'll also visit Montalcino, with a winery tour on the way home.

The cost of the trip includes all breakfasts and all but one lunch and one dinner. It also includes ground transportation and lodging for 12 nights. Sketchbook making supplies and all creative instruction are included. We'll include entry fees to museums and historic sites in the cities we visit as well as a 3-day public transit pass (Vaporetto) in Venice.

This trip includes a significant amount of walking on cobblestone streets and uneven surfaces. We are visiting hill towns, which means, hills. Our stay at Spannocchia will be in a beautiful, rustic, and secluded 15th century castle. All bedrooms are on the second floor. While we will do our best to accommodate all our guests' needs, this is a rigorous and adventurous trip.

Unforeseen circumstances or unanticipated opportunities may change parts of our itinerary. We reserve the right to change any part of this tour as needed. We will do everything in our power to make changes that only enhance your experience.
