

Awaken the Artist Within

Creativity workshops with Erin Lee Gafill & Tom Birmingham

Welcome Message -

I'm so glad you are joining us on this journey into creativity! Together we will explore new methods of art-making, stay in the creative flow and out of judgment, learn new skills, and encourage one another in our process.

Throughout the series, we will post weekly videos offering a look into creative ideas. Each video will be accompanied by a lesson - with step-by-step instructions - and a focus for your weekly assignment.

You can watch the video as often as you like, whenever you like. Once you've completed the assignment, post it to our Private Facebook Group, <https://www.facebook.com/groups/203876034262439/>, for feedback, and to inspire others.

By using the Facebook Page you will gain access to other artists' work from the course from around the world and around the country, enjoying the inspiration of one another's interpretations as well as the opportunity to share your own.

The Group Page is one of the greatest strengths of our program. When one flame flickers out, there is always another at hand to re-light it!

For our first week, you'll only need a few things:

- Sketchbook
- Pencil
- Watercolors and brush

Feel free to email me (erinleegafill@yahoo.com) with any questions about the assignments!

For tech related questions, please email Tom (tom@bigsurarts.com) .

Happy Painting!

Erin
